Get the full The Mammoth Newsletter “ ‘I had never been asked to do anything like that before’ ” — A police officer pulls out a Glock 19 that she allegedly stole from her department’s armory. A 5-year veteran of the Memphis, Tenn., police department told local news station WREG that she’s been openly mocked, called a “fking joke,” and worse because of her decision to get an M-15, the military version of a Glock 19. The police officer, who spoke on the condition of anonymity because she fears for her career, told the station that she was tired of being treated unfairly. “I had never been asked to do anything like that before,” she told the station. “They just kept giving me all this horrible feedback, and being an officer, I knew that I was doing the right thing.” She

Do you enjoy your TV shows? Would you like to download movies directly from Netflix without any additional costs or interruptions? Then please pay a visit to autoFlix! This small helper application for Netflix will help you record the streaming movie titles for offline viewing or download them to your iPhone or iPad. The installation process is really easy, especially if you are a novice user. Just navigate to the “AutoPlay” menu on your iPhone and follow the instructions from there. In no time at all, the tool will be enabled and available for further use! For those who are familiar with the process, you can also use our manual to guide you through the settings. After you have set up the tool you can easily launch autoFlix and control the program via a mobile device. Let your iPhone handle the work of your Android device! With the use of this functionality, you can save the names of the upcoming episodes by using the function of an iPhone. In no time at all, you can start recording the titles automatically! Just fill in the names of the episodes and start watching them while they will be captured. Afterward, you can start downloading the titles as a whole, as well as select individual episodes. The recorded episodes can be downloaded to your iPhone, iPad or iPod touch, and afterwards opened with a compatible media player. The episodes can also be viewed on-line on other devices connected to the Internet. You can also play back the recorded episodes on your TV set. With the help of an HDMI cable you can connect your iPhone or iPod touch to your home receiver. It is possible to also achieve the same effect through other ways, though. If you have your Xbox 360 controller connected to your computer, you can use it on your iPhone or iPad. We offer a premium version of this tool called “AutoFlix Elite,” which offers unlimited episodes in its service as well as allows for recording the episodes directly from Netflix. Features of AutoFlix include: Watch with no additional costs and interruptions Watch unlimited movie and TV episodes without any additional costs Watch Netflix on your TV set Save names of episodes for offline viewing Download the titles to your iPhone, iPad or iPod touch Record the titles by simply entering the episode names Play back the recorded episodes on your TV set View your recorded episodes on-line on your iPhone or iPad Download titles by manually selecting them Watch 09e8f5149f
